

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

From your shameful behavior regarding said media consolidation (I refer of course to the three votes for it some months ago), and your remarks about wanting to keep out of this controversy, I can't expect any justice, but I look forward to a time in the near future when the FCC might again be a responsible government organization.